

West Haven is well connected by road to its neighboring towns. I-95, U.S. Route 1, and Route 34 provide evacuation routes traveling southwest out of the city, along with numerous other local roads.

The closest civilian hospital to West Haven is Yale New Haven Hospital, but storm surge would likely limit access from the west. There is a VA hospital located within town that may be able to provide assistance when medical access is limited.